This Veterans Day we thank all who have served our nation in uniform, living or deceased. It was originally known as Armistice Day and celebrated the end of World War I, which occurred on the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month in 1918. The day was renamed Veterans Day in 1954.

We are pleased to announce on this day that we are now in possession of the print editions of "Shot 'n Shell," the newspaper of Camp San Luis Obispo, from March 1942 through March 1944, so researchers are welcome to reach out to us about 2023 Dallidet Garden Calendars are now on sale on our website or at the History Center Museum. Click here or come in to purchase.

The gardens are now closed for the winter, but we are already hard at work planning for another season of events in 2023, and there are plenty of dates available to rent for your big birthday, wedding, or other celebration!
