SAN LUIS OBISPO COUNTY

Agriculture is at the Heart of SLO County

Cantaloupes are packed at Frank Tsutsumi's farm in 1933

We all know that before it arrives at our local supermarket, our fruits, vegetables, meats, and other products start out on a farm. We here on the Central Coast are fortunate that so much of our produce is local.

That's why it's so phenomenal that FARMsteadED is presenting Open Farm Days on the SLO County Farm Trail! Our local farms raise everything from broccoli and bell peppers, to cows and goats, to lavender and honey.

Check the website to get the full list of activities, events, and opportunities to visit some of SLO County's best small farms this weekend.

And especially don't miss out this Sunday as we partner with Studios on the Park at the Dallidet Adobe & Gardens for a great kids' art activity, a salad planter, plus make-your-own herbal tea!
